

Ellen R. Dornhaus

Description of the work

The composed photography shows a paved road leading into a misty distance. A group of cranes seems to be flying towards the setting sun which enlightens the clouds in a delicate pink.

Vita

1 studied Painting at the Hochschule für bildende Künste Düsseldorf and Hamburg. After the Erste Staatsexamen I stayed for a year in Spain with a Scholarship of the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas and the Deutsche Akademische Austauschdienst (DAAD); later on I had been invited from the National Chengchi University of Taiwan to stay for six weeks in the country. For more than a dozen years I am now focused on photography.

Way to Home